

The best MARCO POLO Insider Tips

Our top 15 Insider Tips

INSIDER TIP ▶ On a bear hunt – with a camera

With a little luck you will be able to see some of the resident black bears up close from the boat in the bays around Tofino. In the summer the bear mothers here teach their cubs how to crack mussels → p. 44

INSIDER TIP ▶ Starfish ahoy!

Seemingly weightless floating jellyfish, colourful sea anemones, giant octopus, starfish, wolf eels and many other marine animals live in the Shaw Centre for the Salish Sea (photo above) north of Victoria – but only for a while, then they are returned to the sea → p. 49

INSIDER TIP ▶ Picture-perfect town

The historic trading post of Fort Langley on the Fraser River has often been the backdrop for Hollywood movies – with a little luck you might cross paths with a star who is filming a movie there → p. 39

INSIDER TIP ▶ Visit the culinary world of Asia

Strange spices, durian fruit, live crabs and duck feet: the T & T Supermarket on the edge of Chinatown in Vancouver offers all the gourmet treasures of Asia → p. 35

INSIDER TIP ▶ A river full of salmon

In early October the Adams River, north-east of Kamloops, swarms with hundreds of thousands of bright red salmon → p. 56

INSIDER TIP ▶ Log cabins on the lake

Thick beams, red roofs and breathtaking vistas: the Clearwater Lake Lodge off Hwy. 20 meets all the requirements for a wilderness adventure → p. 53

INSIDER TIP ▶ Hot springs in the wilderness

Pure relaxation after a long walk: soak sore muscles in the Nakusp Hot Springs pools, wonderfully secluded in the woods → p. 61

INSIDER TIP ▶ Crazy Canadians

A race with decorated toilets on wheels? The Klondike International Outhouse Race proves that nothing is too crazy for the gold miners in Dawson City → p. 127

INSIDER TIP ▶ Good wine, beautiful view

Quails' Gate Estate Winery on the shore of Okanagan Lake in the wine area of Kelowna offers the perfect gourmet lunch → p. 59

INSIDER TIP ▶ Canoe trip just like the early pioneers

A multi-day canoe trip on the lakes of the Wells Gray Provincial Park opens the eyes and the heart – and also gives you calluses on your hands! → p. 62

INSIDER TIP ▶ Original cowboy boots

Here you will certainly be spoiled for choice; the Alberta Boot Company in Calgary has 12,000 boots in stock – or you can order a custom pair → p. 86

INSIDER TIP ▶ A night in a house of pleasure

Bombay Peggy's in Dawson City (photo below) really was once a brothel – today it is a B & B with a good pub → p. 96

INSIDER TIP ▶ A hike with scenic views

In good weather Parker Ridge has the most beautiful views of the Rockies and the mighty glaciers which flow into the three lakes from here → p. 105

INSIDER TIP ▶ Rustic pioneer lodge

You will feel as if you have been transported back to the Wild West in the Num-Ti-Jah Lodge in Banff National Park → p. 70

INSIDER TIP ▶ Adventurous spelunking

Be an intrepid cave explorer: you will find the caverns and crystal formations of the Horne Lake Caves Provincial Park on Vancouver Island still in their original state → p. 123

BEST OF ...

GREAT PLACES FOR FREE

Discover new places and save money

● Salmon viewing in Vancouver

Instead of going to an aquarium, you can see wild salmon up close and for free at the Capilano Salmon Hatchery in the summer. Watch the fish fight against the flow through large underwater observation windows → p. 34

● Gold rush town

Historic Dawson City could almost be a museum village, but the authentic gold rush town established in 1898 is alive and kicking and offers wonderful photo opportunities and plenty of pioneer flair (photo) without any entrance fee → p. 95

● Sunny mountains, dizzying heights

National parks charge admission but provincial parks in Alberta, such as Kananaskis Country, are free. The Rocky Mountains here are just as beautiful as in Banff – but much sunnier, because it is the eastern flank of the mountains → p. 77

● The sound of the mountains

Enjoy jazz, classical music, dance and even operas – for free or only little money – throughout the summer at the prestigious Banff Centre. All in front of the magnificent mountain scenery of Banff National Park → p. 89

● Enjoyment of art for free

'Art for all' is the motto of the Vancouver Art Gallery every Tuesday evening, when admission is free. Those who want to, can leave a donation. Worth seeing: Emily Carr's impressionistic and expansive paintings of the rugged west coast → p. 38

● Cliff hiking

Landscaped and paved trails are few and far between on the west coast – and they usually cost money such as in the Pacific Rim National Park. The Wild Pacific Trail right next door in Ucluelet is free and truly stunning. Start with the Lighthouse Loop section! → p. 44

● ● ● Dots in guidebook refer to 'Best of...' tips

ONLY IN WESTERN CANADA

Unique experiences

● Celebrate with lumberjacks

It doesn't get more Canadian than the Salmon Festival in Campbell River on Vancouver Island where salmon and lumberjacks are celebrated – with axe throwing and bowsaw competitions → p. 127

● Driving to the Arctic Ocean

The trip on Canada's northernmost road takes two days: the 700 km/435 mi Dempster Highway runs through the wilderness from Dawson City across the Arctic Circle and to the polar sea → p. 97

● Orca watching

It is a strict rule that no one is allowed to get closer than 100 m/328 ft from the whales. But the inquisitive creatures often come closer to the boats and you may experience this on a whale watching tour in Victoria with Eagle Wing Tours → p. 48

● Smoked salmon in Vancouver

At the Granville Island Public Market in Vancouver you can sample the culinary treasures of Canada's west coast: raspberries, goat's cheese, oysters, halibut – and the best smoked salmon in the world → p. 35

● Trapper for a day

How about spending the night as a fur trapper? Deep in the wilderness of British Columbia the wooden stockades and beaver pelts of the Fort St James National Historic Site take you back to the era of the fur trader → p. 64

● Cycling around Stanley Park

On a sunny afternoon, there is no better outing in Vancouver than the more than 10 km/6.2 mi long Stanley Park Drive. The route winds its way along the coast with great views of the city, the mountains, the fjords and small beaches → p. 36

● Lake views in the Rocky Mountains

The view from Bow Summit Pass – 2000 m/6562 ft and sometimes windy – over Peyto Lake is quite stunning. The strikingly turquoise glacial lake is one of the most impressive sights in the Rockies (photo) → p. 69

ONLY IN

DISCOVERY TOURS

1 WESTERN CANADA AT A GLANCE

START: 1 Calgary
END: 19 Vancouver

14 days
Driving time
(without stops)
35 hours

Distance:
→ 2500 km/1553 mi

COSTS: C$300 for gas (car), C$40 canoe rental at 11 Emerald Lake in Yoho National Park, C$150 rafting tour at 16 Lytton, C$37 ride with 18 Sea-to-Sky Gondola in Squamish

WHAT TO PACK: Hiking boots, rain/wind jacket and sweater, do not forget sun protection and mosquito repellent in summer

IMPORTANT TIPS: Bears are frequently seen especially in early summer – keep distance and leave no food around! Tip: You sometimes can save the car transfer fee if you follow the route in west-east direction.

Would you like to explore the places that are unique to this region? Then the Discovery Tours are just the thing for you – they include terrific tips for stops worth making, breathtaking places to visit, selected restaurants and fun activities. It's even easier with the Touring App: download the tour with map and route to your smartphone using the QR Code on pages 2/3 or from the website address in the footer below – and you'll never get lost again even when you're offline.

→ p. 2/3

An introductory tour, ideal for first-timers: the route from the prairies in Calgary to the ice-covered peaks of the Rockies, on to the lake districts of British Columbia and the Pacific coast in Vancouver, show the many facets of Western Canada. There is ample time for hiking and experiencing nature along the route and other tours are easy to combine. Best travel time: June to September.

A day to get settled in 1 Calgary → p. 83: stroll in Stephen Avenue Mall, visit Heritage Park and shop cheap, as there is no provincial tax in Alberta. Benefit from the great bargains for clothes and shoes the next morning.

